

Dear Family,

I'm not the best writer so bare with me. I usually have a problem with writing but knowing the purpose and who it was for I had to. I don't think you guys understand what you did to me and my life. Being a kid from Philadelphia there is little to no hope of leaving your location. I take advantage of situations like these because I know any day my life could be taken in Philly so a day not in Philly is a day where your neck isn't hurting from constantly watching your back. Its crazy and a little weird that someone got killed each time I've went to leadership camp. ~~████████~~ So that being said I want you to know you are one of the many people in Crossfit that have changed my life. Growing up where I'm from its a given that you trust no one

~~and you~~ because they could set you up and you can't get close to anyone because you could lose them just like that. Crossfit showed me that I didn't have to be that way even though it took me a couple years to feel that way. Sorry for ~~for~~ rambling but I just want you to know that I appreciate you guys more than ~~a~~ ~~anything~~, you changed and saved my life whether you meant to or not. I thank you.

Sincerely TRE

P.S. as you can tell my spelling is terrible, so

Sorry and thank you again
